Important Information

- 1. Employer does not choose the annuity contract(s) or custodial account(s) in which contributions are invested.
- 2. Employees are responsible for setting up and signing the legal documents to establish the annuity contract or custodial account. However, in certain group annuity contracts, Employer may be required to establish the contract.
- 3. In order to receive the expected tax results, Employees are responsible for investing in annuity contracts or custodial accounts that meet the requirements of Section 403(b)/457 in the Internal Revenue Code.
- 4. Employees are responsible for naming a death benefit under the 403(b)/457 program. This is normally done at the time the annuity contract or custodial account is established. Beneficiary designations should be reviewed periodically.
- 5. Employees are responsible for all distributions and any other transactions with their service provider. All rights under the annuity contracts or custodial accounts are enforceable solely by the Employee, Employee Beneficiary or Employee's Authorized Representative. Employee must work directly with the service provider to transfer contract(s) or custodial account(s) to another service provider, begin distributions, make loans, or otherwise access 403(b)/457 program assets.
- 6. Employees are responsible for determining that salary reductions do not exceed the allowable contribution limits under Applicable Law. Limits should be checked each year for the scheduled increases through 2009.
